Mr. Tevault:

I called your office again this morning and did not get an answer (I left a voicemail). It has been nearly a month since my January 9 letter and I have not received any kind of response, despite my repeated efforts. You have failed to even provide the courtesy of an acknowledgment that you received my January 9 letter, or an estimate as to when my clients could expect a response.

We consider the lack of response to indicate that you and your company do not have any good faith basis to dispute liability for the unpaid interest. We also assume that you and your company do not intend in good faith to attempt to resolve this matter consensually.

We will proceed accordingly.

Nathan

Mr. Tevault:

I called your office again just now and was again told that you were not available.

4/7/2018

Case 18-05351 Doc 22-6 Filed 04/09/18 Entered 04/09/18 11:18:49 Desc Exhibit 6 Page 2 of 3

I asked if there was someone else I should contact and was told that you are the person who handles all investor relations. I was told that you have suggested it is best to email you, but (per below) I have been doing so without a response since January 9.

Please provide me with the courtesy of when I can expect a response to my January 9 letter. As you can no doubt appreciate, my clients are very concerned and upset at the lack of response (on top of the payment defaults).

Thank you,

Nathan

I just gave your office a call and they informed me that you've recently had a new addition in the family—congratulations!

If there is someone else I should be speaking to about this, please let me know and I'd be happy to follow up with them.

Otherwise I will look for a response from you next week.
